

Lincoln ave will be the touch a truck display area. Any participants in the parade will make a right on Lincoln ave at the end of the parade route to their designated area. A volunteer will be on that corner to point you in the correct direction. If you are not participating in the parade, but still participating in the event, please reach out to the event coordinator to be in your spot before the parade begins

